Foreword

"West Seattle for West Seattle" is the idea for the nineteen-thirty "Blue and Gold," as portrayed in division page designs.

We, the members of the anual staff, wish to offer our appreciation to those who have devoted their time and thought that West Seattle might have a better annual: Mr. Fred Wiman and Mr. Walt M. Irvine of the Western Engraving Company, Mr. Howard Marzolf of Peters Publishing Company, Mr. Paul Denison of Scene-O-Graph Studio, Mr. E. Meyer of the Practice Office, and our three annual sponsors, Miss Clio Blair, Miss Lea Puymbroeck, and Mr. Leonard E. Bonar.

Principal's Message

May the spirit of loyalty and cooperation so evident in our student body the past year be indicative of a willingness on the part of our students to believe that in community relationships outside of the school true success is always the result of real merit. We may then be assured that our contribution to the world will be a group of worthy citizens whose constant endeavor will be to increase their capacity for service to others in the realization that he gains most who serves best.

FACULTY

Like sunlight shooting through the gloom
Of deep and rocky caverns,
They have pierced the darkness of the ignorance of ages.
They have brought the light to minds still unaware of wisdom.

CLASSES

Four there were, and one I saw
Was small and green and very meek;
The second was a haughty thing
But inwardly a trifle weak;
The third was busy, for it moved
The sun, the moon, and e'en the tide;
The fourth was high and lordly
With its condescending pride.
Four there were, but as I looked,
They shifted, and the great was small
And soon, before my very eyes
Four new ones took the place of all.

Senior Class

At the beginning of their first year as Freshmen the members of the class, of course, afforded great amusement to the upper classmen; but as they began to understand and to enjoy high school and to enter into school activities, the upper classmen admired their spirit. Mrs. Sanders was the class adviser, and the officers were Virgil Broughton, president; Henry Brandon, vice-president; Beth Watson, secretary; and Chester Duckwitz, treasurer.

The Freshmen had made many friends their first year and were glad to come back the next fall as Sophomores. This year Miss Clark became adviser, and with her help and that of Henry Brandon, Beth Watson, Helen Beneker, and Virgil Broughton the Class of '30 began to enter more and more into school activities. Though individuals joined the different organizations of the school, the class plays, "The Little Fool" and "Not Quite Such a Goose," were the outstanding group accomplishments.

By their Junior year the students had become an important part of school life. In activities they showed a wide range of talent, musical, dramatic, athletic, scholarly, and artistic. In the operetta, "The Marriage of Nannette" and the play, "You and I," many Juniors had leading roles. Don McClary and Del Muller made the first team in football, and Loring McManus played guard in first team basketball.

The event of the Senior year was, of course, the Senior play. "The Romantic Age," by A. A. Milne, a delightfully whimsical play, was chosen by the committee, and the parts were beautifully acted. Members of the Class of '30 have been in every type of activity and will be missed next year.

We are eager to graduate, but we are sorry to leave West Seattle and the friends we have made.

Commencement

The Commencement program this year was based on living Americans who are influencing thought today. Each speaker chose for his subject some man prominent along fields in which he was particularly interested. Mary Elizabeth Luppold, Salutatorian, showed what a heterogeneous thing a high school really is, and introduced the following speakers:

Marie Wessler.....Dewey, Philohopher
George Lipsky....Chief Justice Holmes, Statesman
Mary Dixon.....Robert Frost, Poet
Max Canterbury.....Beard, Historian
Walter Barnett, Valedictorian....Milikan, Scientist

The members of the Class of '30 were very glad that Mr. C. R. Frazier, our principal in 1928, could come back to give out the diplomas. Mr. Frazier was a very good friend, as well as principal, and the Seniors were glad to have him back.

The Class of '30 was especially fortunate in having outstanding musicians among its members. The musical program was especially delightful this year.

Class Poem

Like a ship that takes flight
Into clean air,
It steadily moves to the sky,
And finds its way
Among white gulls,
Who beckon with their cry,
Following up along the slope,
It banks and starts to descend,
But an upward swoop,
And an upward tilt,
And the plane is righted again.
Soaring and swaying, it finds its way
Toward patches of blues and green.
The water curdles and rumbles a chant,
It lures, but is not seen
By the pilot, who, steady and self assured,
Flies to a quieter scene.
Three points, and who could be closer
To a landing more beautifully sound?
Who could have flown his air ship
Toward a loftier, finer ground?

—J. Shaver.

Class Will

We, the class of 1930, of the City of Seattle, King County, State of Washington, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament.

First, we give, devise, and bequeath to the Freshman class an exclusive right to the profits of the roof garden next year.

Secondly, we bequeath to the Sophomore class a rapidly growing ability to get into scrapes—and out of them.

Thirdly, we leave to the Junior class a lease for exactly one year on the prominent radiators and the right of talking over the heads of the impressed Freshmen.

ARTICLE I

Section 1. Vera Eselby leaves many hilarious snorts and giggles around for Bud Schacht to inhale.

Verg Broughton and Bob Morse leave the lettering room a wreck.

Jim Wilson leaves—(what could be sweeter?)

Sandy Stewart leaves the Chinook staff minus a good sport editor and the maids sighing for another silent, business-like hero.

Section 2. Mildred Martin dances away leaving the "Mississippi Murmurs" still gurgling faintly.

Section 3. Louise Ballentine and Beth Watson graduate leaving the Radiator Gang utterly depleted.

Gordie Young generously wills his ability to get ahead in the world to that shy little violet, Dick Whiting.

Section 4. Sid Woody bequeaths several broken piano keys and wornout music scores to Carol Deignan.

DeKalb Key moves out leaving everybody wondering how he managed to graduate.

Don McClary and Del Muller depart, leaving broken egg-beaters, torn aprons, and bowls all over the cooking room. They also leave Miss Bachman with the hope that no more football players will ever decide to take cooking again.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. Mary Dixon wills her books, "How To Care For Horsies" and "The Morse Code," to Ruth Cain.

Duane Robinson leaves a few "Go get 'em Indians" still floating around the gym.

SECTION 2. Millicent Biel wills her "extra spechul" desk in the apartment to the new Girls' Club president.

SECTION 3. Park Westover bestows the thrills and sensations of his senior play aeroplane ride on any aviation student who has never been off the ground.

Andrew Vitalich bequeaths a few of the dashing automobiles he drives around to Allan Webster.

Virginia Robinson wills exactly one-quarter of her ability to eat heartily and yet remain stylishly slim to Marjorie Cleveland.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1. Laura Dawn Krows wills her "sense of touch" on the lunchroom cash register to the next cashier.

Bark Boyd wills "that eye and them noses" to somebody who is unfortunate enough to look like most of us.

SECTION 2. Bill Stone leaves several of the gang still nursing fingers and backs which were sadly injured whenever Bill became enthusiastic.

SECTION 3. Charlotte Hansen wills her dignity which she used in the opera to Mr. Behymer for use on future scintillating stars in operas.

Jan Chalmers bestows her "wim and wigor" on anybody who doesn't like oatmeal either.

John Clyde cheerfully leaves his list of explanations to some little fearful Frosh.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal, this twelfth day of June, A. D., nineteen hundred and thirty (1930).

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said Class of '30, as and for their last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses to said instrument.

CLASS OF '31.
CLASS OF '32.

Junior Class

With the help of Gail Doolittle, president; Sonny Collins, vice-president; Ruth Hedman, secretary; and Roberta Matter, treasurer, the Class of '31 has done remarkable work this year.

We are proud of every one of the Junior members of the Honor Society, twenty-one who wear Two-Bar Pins and nineteen who wear the Gold Seal, and of the seven Juniors who earned five A's or more in semester grades.

In athletics, Sonny Collins made his letter in football; and Gail Doolittle, Forrest Rieke, and Gordon McRae were shining lights in basketball; Gordon McRae and Silus Ranta were leading with the golf clubs; and Ira Scribner pitched for the baseball team.

On the Debate Team two Juniors have represented West Seattle, Frances Farmer and Ellsworth Wills.

Ruth Gjesdahl, Richard Whiting, and a senior, Charlotte Conklin, took turns being Managing Editor, News Editor, and Associate Editor of the "Chinook."

Our Juniors are talented along literary and artistic lines, too. Richard Jahns was Editor-in-Chief of the "Blue and Gold"; and Mollie Hart, Art Editor. The Juniors had many representatives in every type of activity.

The Class of '31 showed its managing ability when the class dance, the "Shamrock Shindig," was carried out so successfully. For liveliness and fun the dance was the best of any held this year. A great deal of credit belongs to Dick Whiting, Business Manager, and Roberta Matter, his assistant, but the success of the dance was due to the spirit and the coöperation of the committees and of the entire class.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class, the largest in the school, was under the able advisership of Mrs. Chamberlen when its members first entered West Seattle High School. Under her guidance class organization was promptly initiated, giving full scope for student enterprise. After a very successful year during which the class gave promise of being a very energetic and able one, they laid plans for its organization to be carried over into the next year.

It was a misfortune to the class to lose Mrs. Chamberlen as adviser; but as luck would have it, their new adviser, Miss Blalock, is one just as interested in boys and girls and in the success of the class. The officers for this year were president, Richard Wiseman; vice-president, John Hardy; secretary-treasurer, Joe Jefferson. These officers were elected by the Sophomore Council, comprised of roll representatives from the class at large. Thus we see that the organization of the class is a very democratic one with ample promise of success.

The class gave a party, April 4, which took the form of a vodvil. A special attempt was made to discover latent talent within the class for future use. This "get-together" was very successful and is an example of what the class can do.

Freshman Class

The class of 1933 was remarkable in many respects. For one thing, it comprised the last class of Freshmen that West Seattle High School will know for a good while. And, for another, it stepped right out and made that name in the first semester that it has been here. With Miss Lockhart as its excellent adviser, it chose an unusually alive and energetic set of officers. They were Dick Rice, president; Jack Northrup, vice-president; Edith Ginger, secretary; and Betty Manning, treasurer.

Although the Freshmen had been in school only a short while, they began and carried out their activities with great success. In athletics, most particularly football, did they excell, and they finished with a remarkable record in that line. Their outstanding event of the school year was the Freshman What-Not presented April 2. This was held in the auditorium where, among other things, several skits, composed and played by the Freshmen themselves, were given. After a varied program in the auditorium the audience adjourned to the boys' gym where games were played and candy sold. Every one enjoyed this afternoon entertainment immensely.

The Freshmen showed active interest not only in their own affairs but also in general school activities. They are expected to go on as Sophomores and achieve great things. If they continue the same spirit of willingness to work and to coöperate that has characterized them in their first year here, there is no doubt but that they will graduate finally with flying colors.

Boys' Club

The purpose of the Boys' Club is to create a better coöperative and sportsmanlike spirit among boys of the school. Upon entering the high school every boy automatically becomes a member but is under no obligations as far as dues and club work are concerned.

Mr. Lemmel, the Boys' Club adviser, is an inspiration to the boys, helping and advising them during the course of the year, as the problems of a high school boy are many.

The work of the Boys' Club was successfully carried on this year with Chester Duckwitz, president; Robert Morse, vice-president; Richard Whiting, secretary-treasurer. Officers for the year are elected the second week in May of the preceding year. These three officers with the adviser, Mr. Lemmel, automatically become members of the Student Control Council.

One of the big activities of the year was the "Pow Wow," which was sponsored by the Girls' and Boys' Clubs.

The Club is powerful in that it has within it smaller influential clubs and committees, which have much to do with the controlling of athletics and which help finance intramural sports.

During the course of the year numerous assemblies were held for the benefit of the boys so that they could hear professional men speak on vocational subjects.

The Boys' Club is recognized as a big factor in the life of every boy in West Seattle High School.

Debate Team

West Seattle may well be proud of her debating season. We couldn't claim the title of champions; yet there has been discovered some excellent material for the future. Mrs. Lansing and Mr. Kimball, debate coaches, have done an admirable piece of work for the school.

The question for the first semester was "Resolved, That the jury system be abolished in civil and criminal cases." The negative team, composed of Duane Robinson and Frances Farmer, lost their debates to Roosevelt and Queen Anne. The affirmative team, George Lipsky and Joe Hunt, won both their debates, the first with Ballard, the second with Broadway.

"Resolved, That the Philippines be granted their independence within ten years" was the question for the second semester. The affirmative team, Duane Robinsón and Ellsworth Wills, won their two debates, the first with Franklin, and the other with Garfield. George Lipsky and Joe Hunt on the negative team lost their debates to Lincoln and Cleveland.

The scores seemed fairly well matched with a successful and unsuccessful semester for each team. In the interscholastic debates each debate was either won or lost by a two-one decision.

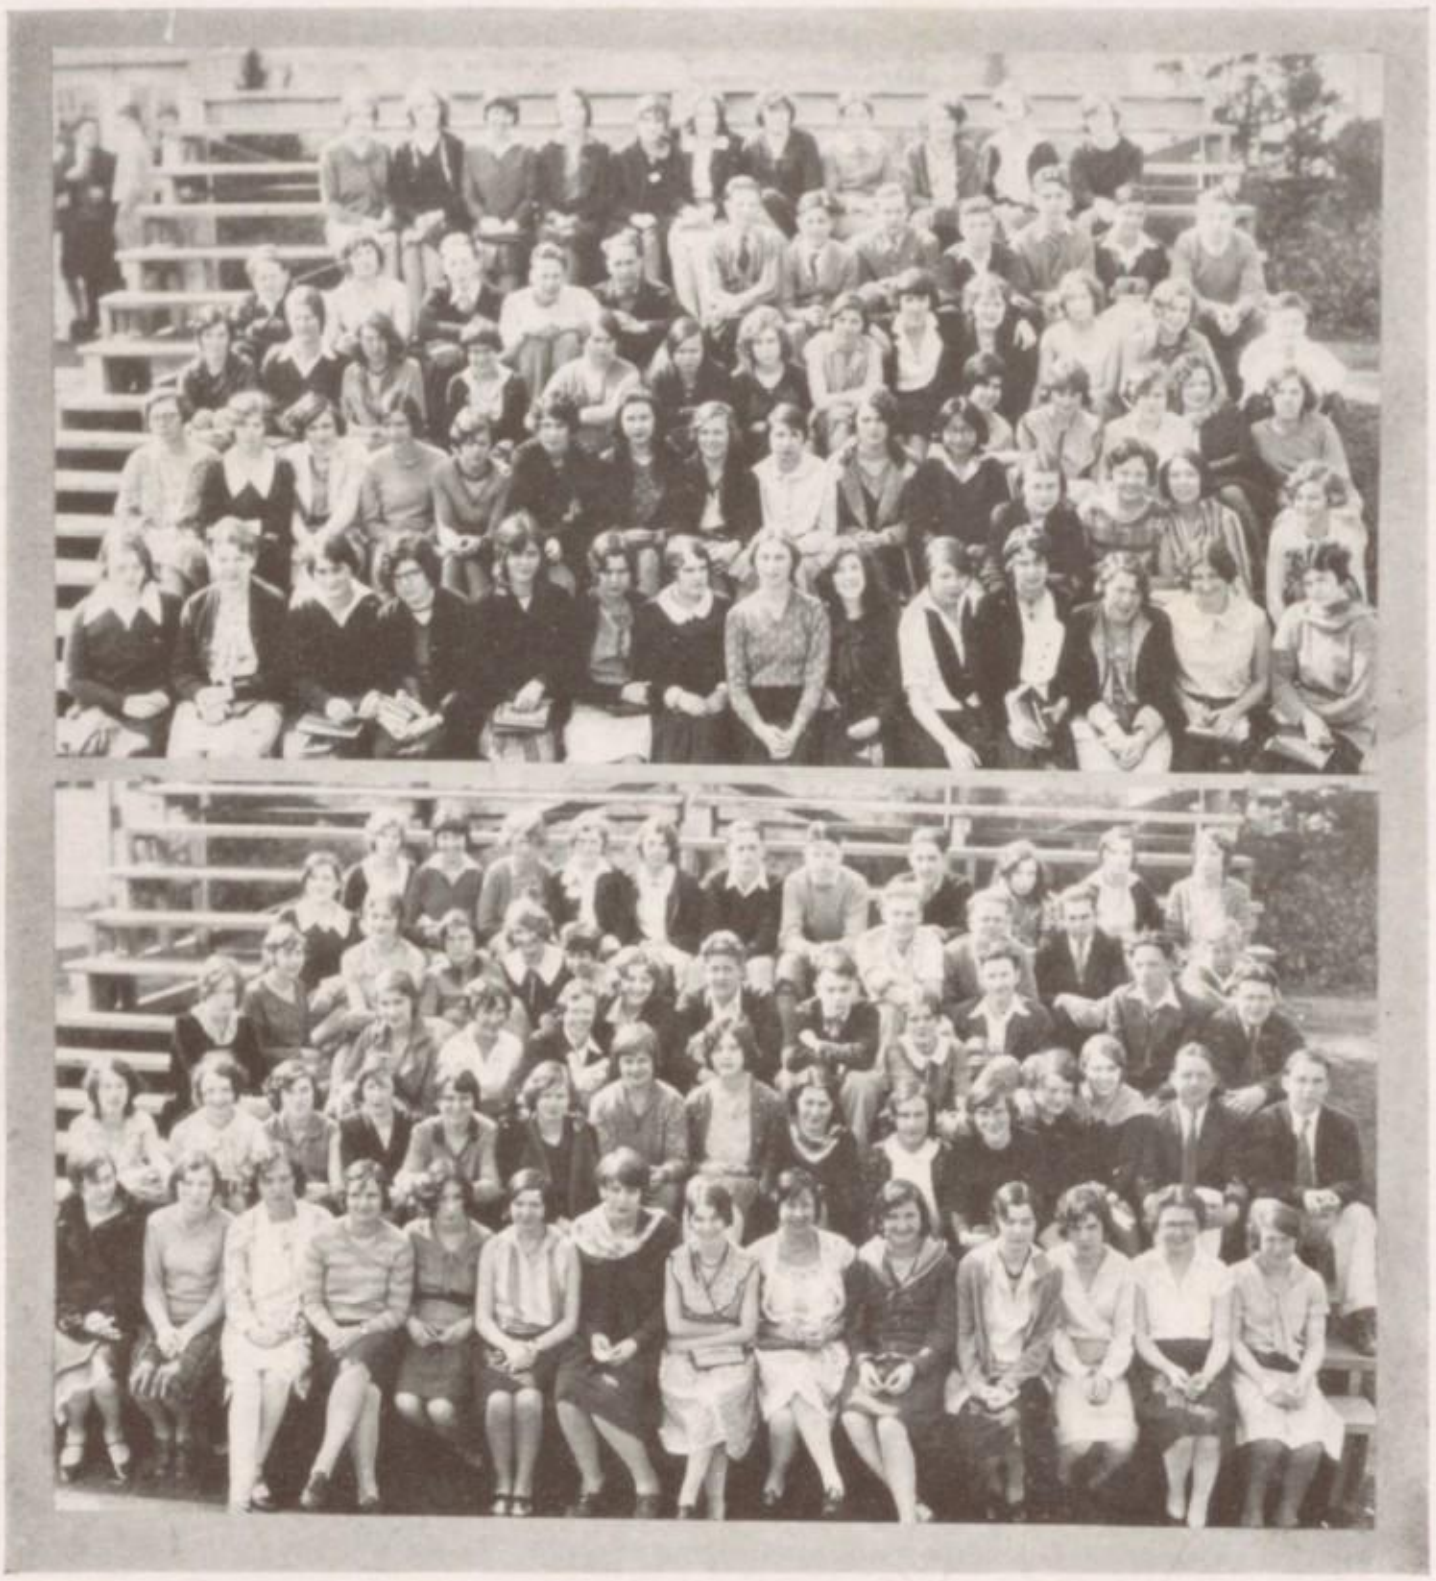
In years to come the students who debate for West Seattle will be awarded pins. This plan was fostered by the debaters and the debate club this year.

Debate Club

The Debate Club was sponsored by Mrs. Lansing and Mr. Kimball. The officers were Joe Hunt, president; Bob Scott, vice-president; and Frances Farmer, secretary-treasurer. This club was formed primarily to encourage students who wished to participate in interscholastic debate and to supply West Seattle with a debate representative in the City Debate Association, as well as to attend to small courtesies for students who debate here from other schools. Aside from regular duties, this organization has sponsored successful candy sales for the opera and the senior play.

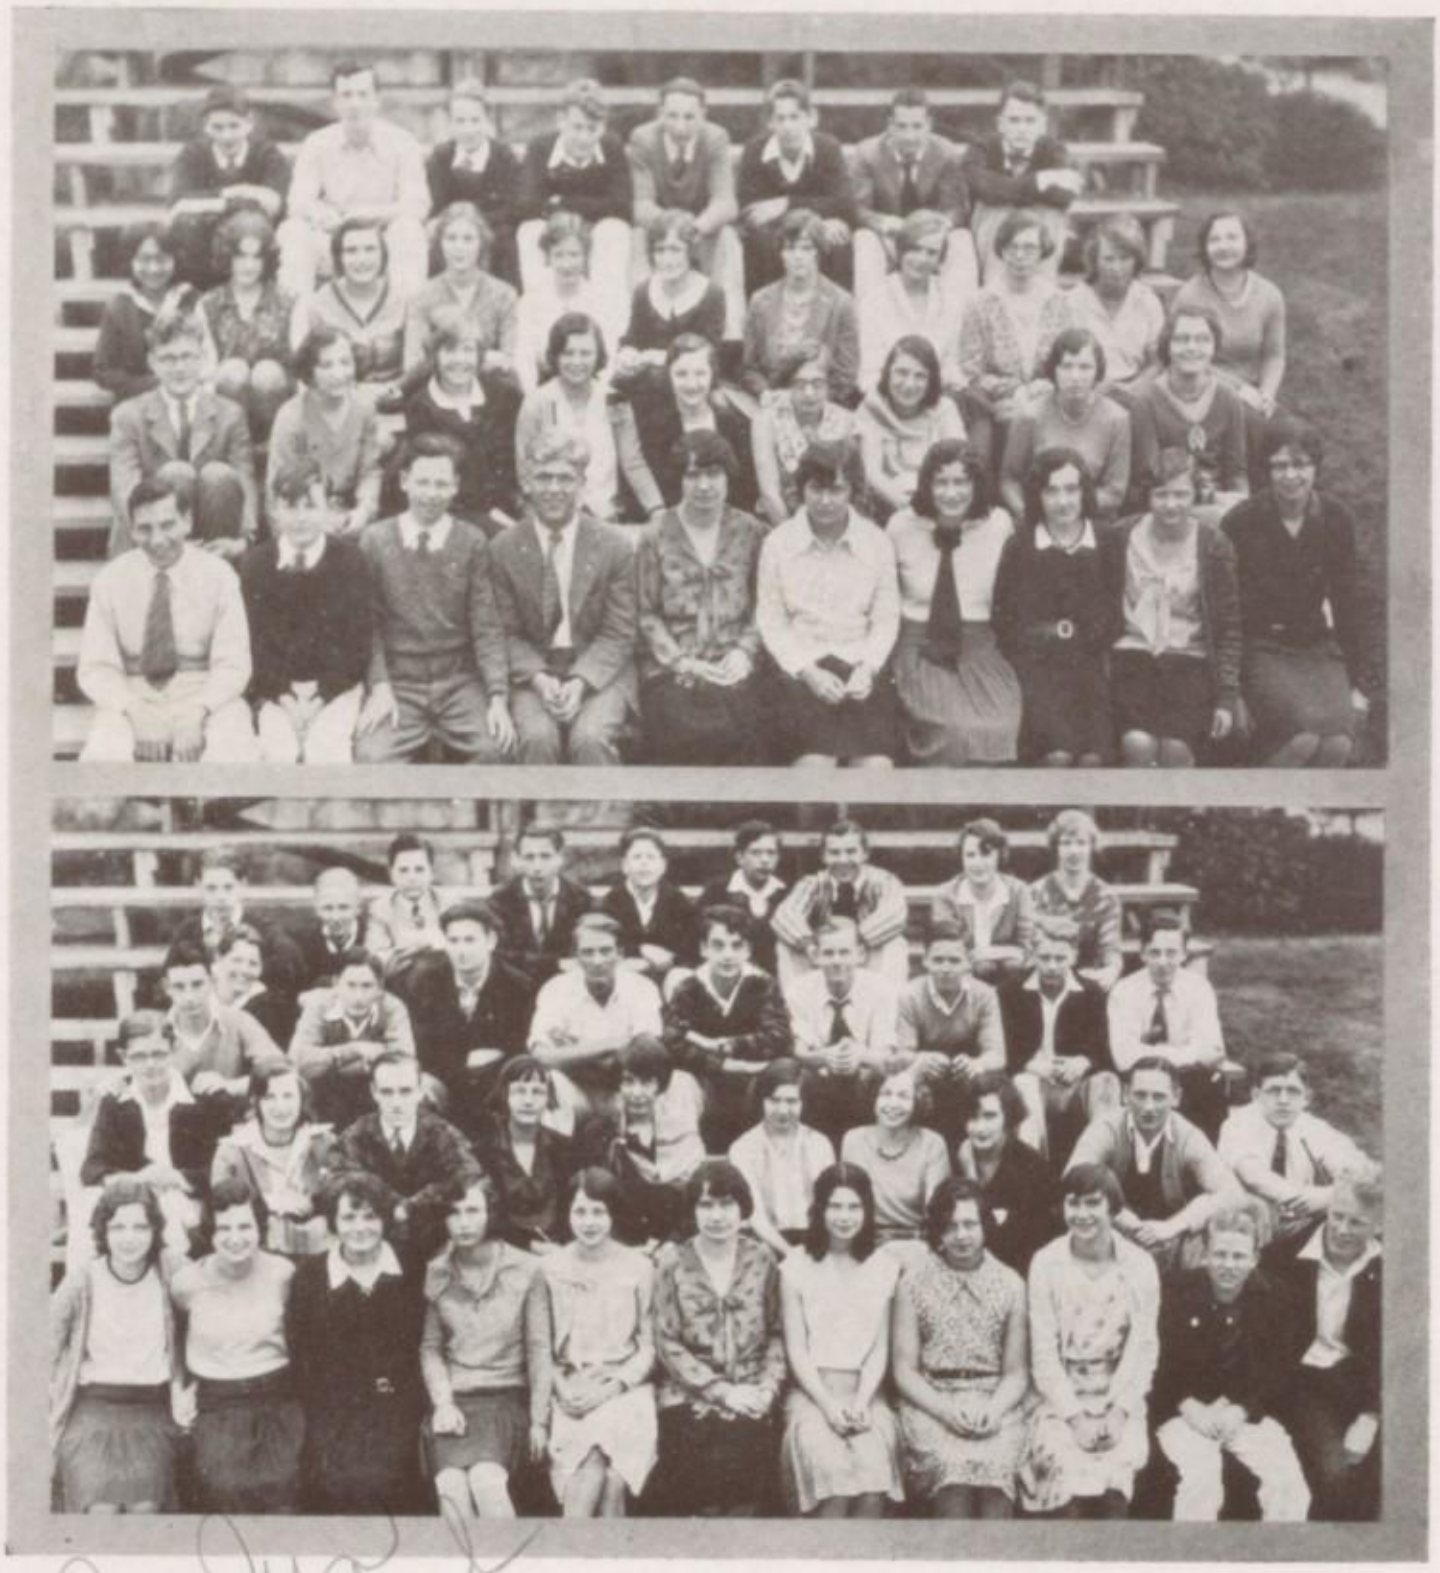
Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, La Tertulia, has prospered this year under the able leadership of Tom Page, president; Don Duncan, vice-president; Elsie Pickett, secretary; and Marie Razzore, treasurer. It conducted all its meetings and its plays in Spanish. This year the Spanish IV students edited a Spanish newspaper, a small replica of our daily papers. It was written entirely in Spanish.



French Club

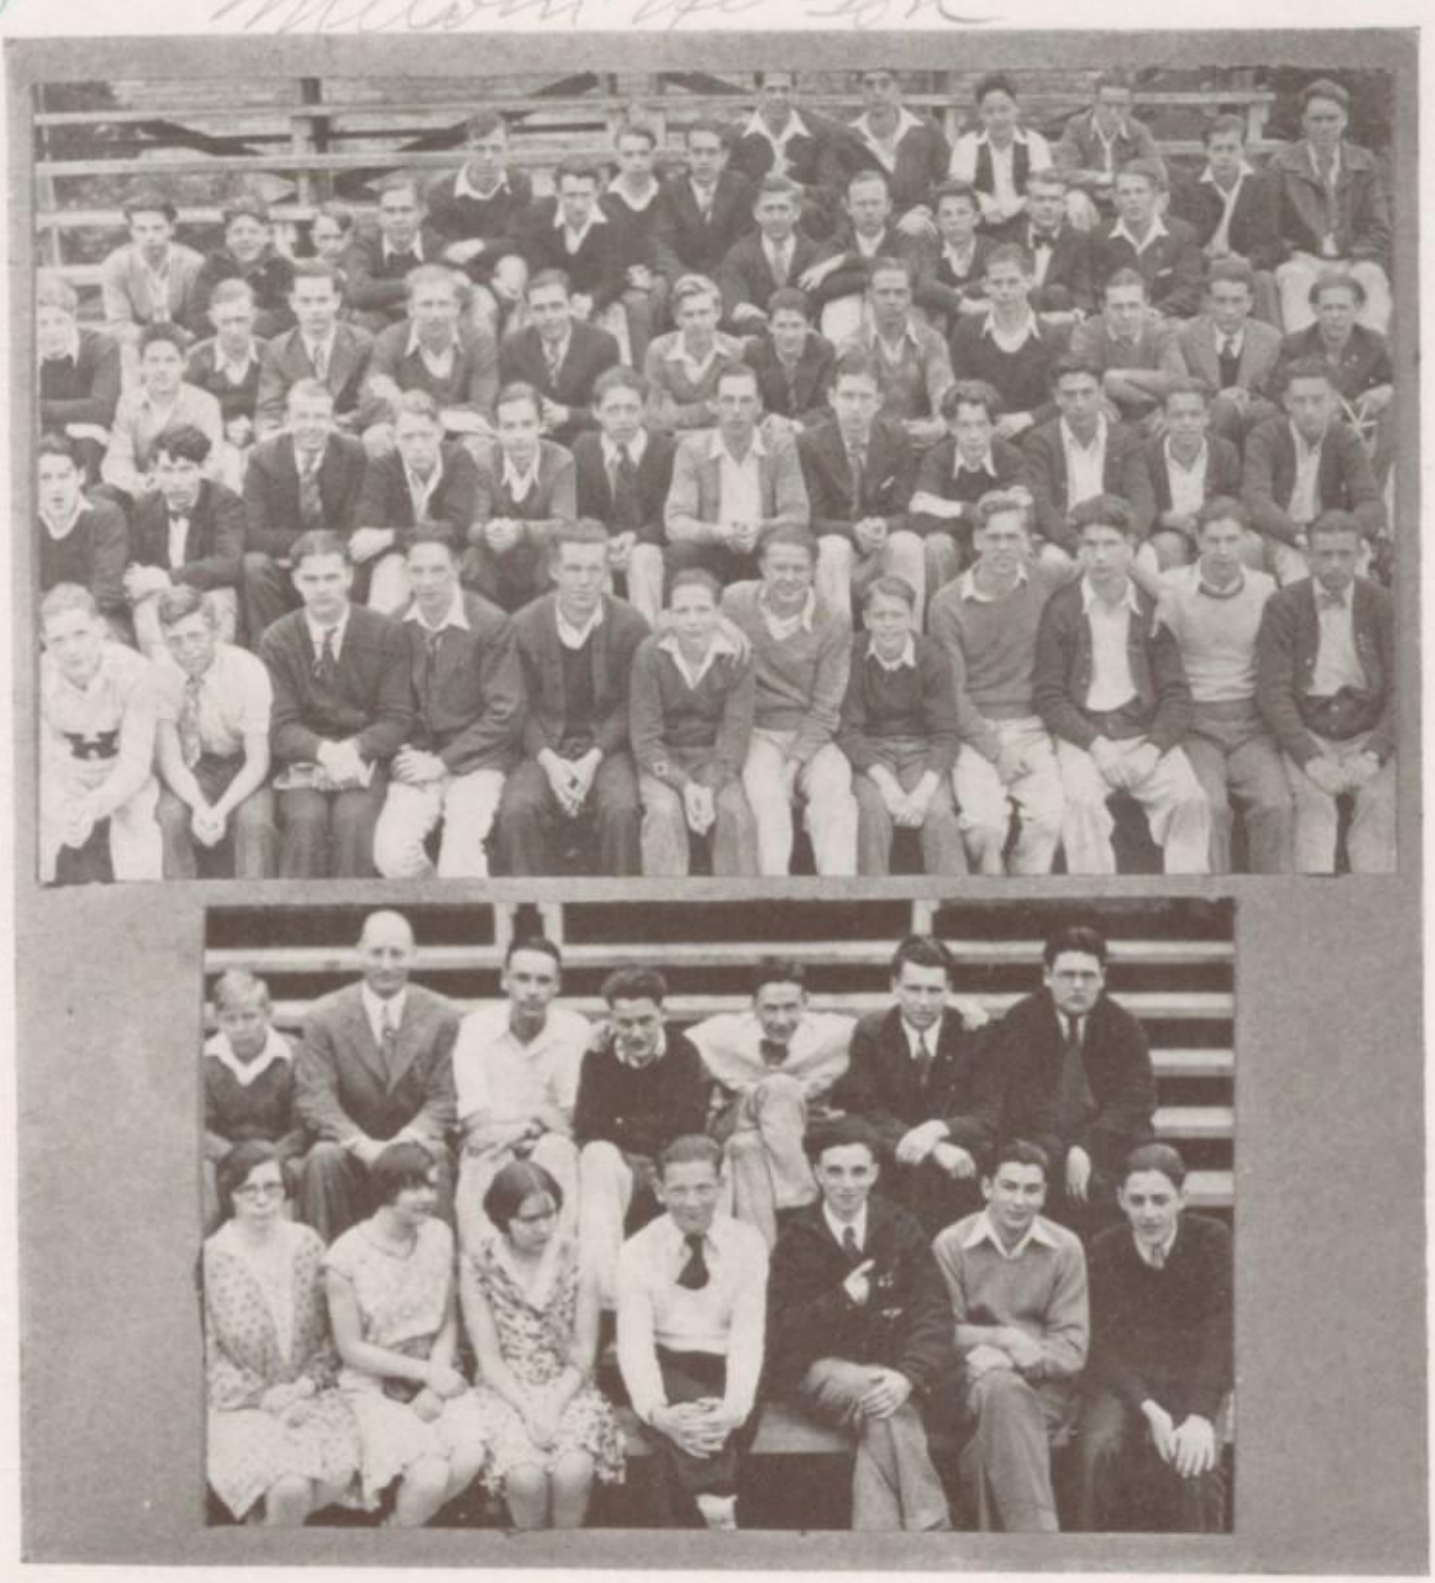
The French Club has progressed under the able leadership of Lola May Van Horn, president; Walter Barnet, vice-president; Pauline Smith, secretary; Ray Rousseau, treasurer; Miss Shelton, faculty sponsor. At their first meeting Miss Harris entertained them with a thrilling account of her summer experiences in Europe, and in May the Dramatic Club kindly assisted them in the presentation of a French play, "La Faim Est un Grand Inventeur." An additional undertaking this year has been the purchase of twenty French books for their library.



Latin Club

The Latin Club had the following officers: Frances Farmer and George Lipsky, consuls; Evelyn Stewart, scriba; and William Lowry, quaestor. Miss Hummel was sponsor of this organization, the one hundred enthusiastic members of which came regularly to the monthly meetings.

To exemplify their work the Latin Club presented a festival, "Apollo and the Muses," in May. This production was successfully managed and afforded many a great deal of pleasure.



Aviation Club

The Aviation Club is composed of the Aviation II Classes with Mr. Whaley as sponsor and teacher. With the aid of a 1926 Douglas Army Pursuit plane and a Liberty engine, the boys have studied aviation from its early history to the present.

Stamp Club

Although a comparatively small organization, the Stamp Club had many enthusiastic members. The club was sponsored by Mr. Siceloff and had the following officers: president, Carl Crandall; vice-president, Leo N. Rousseau; secretary-treasurer, Bernice Tjerandsen.

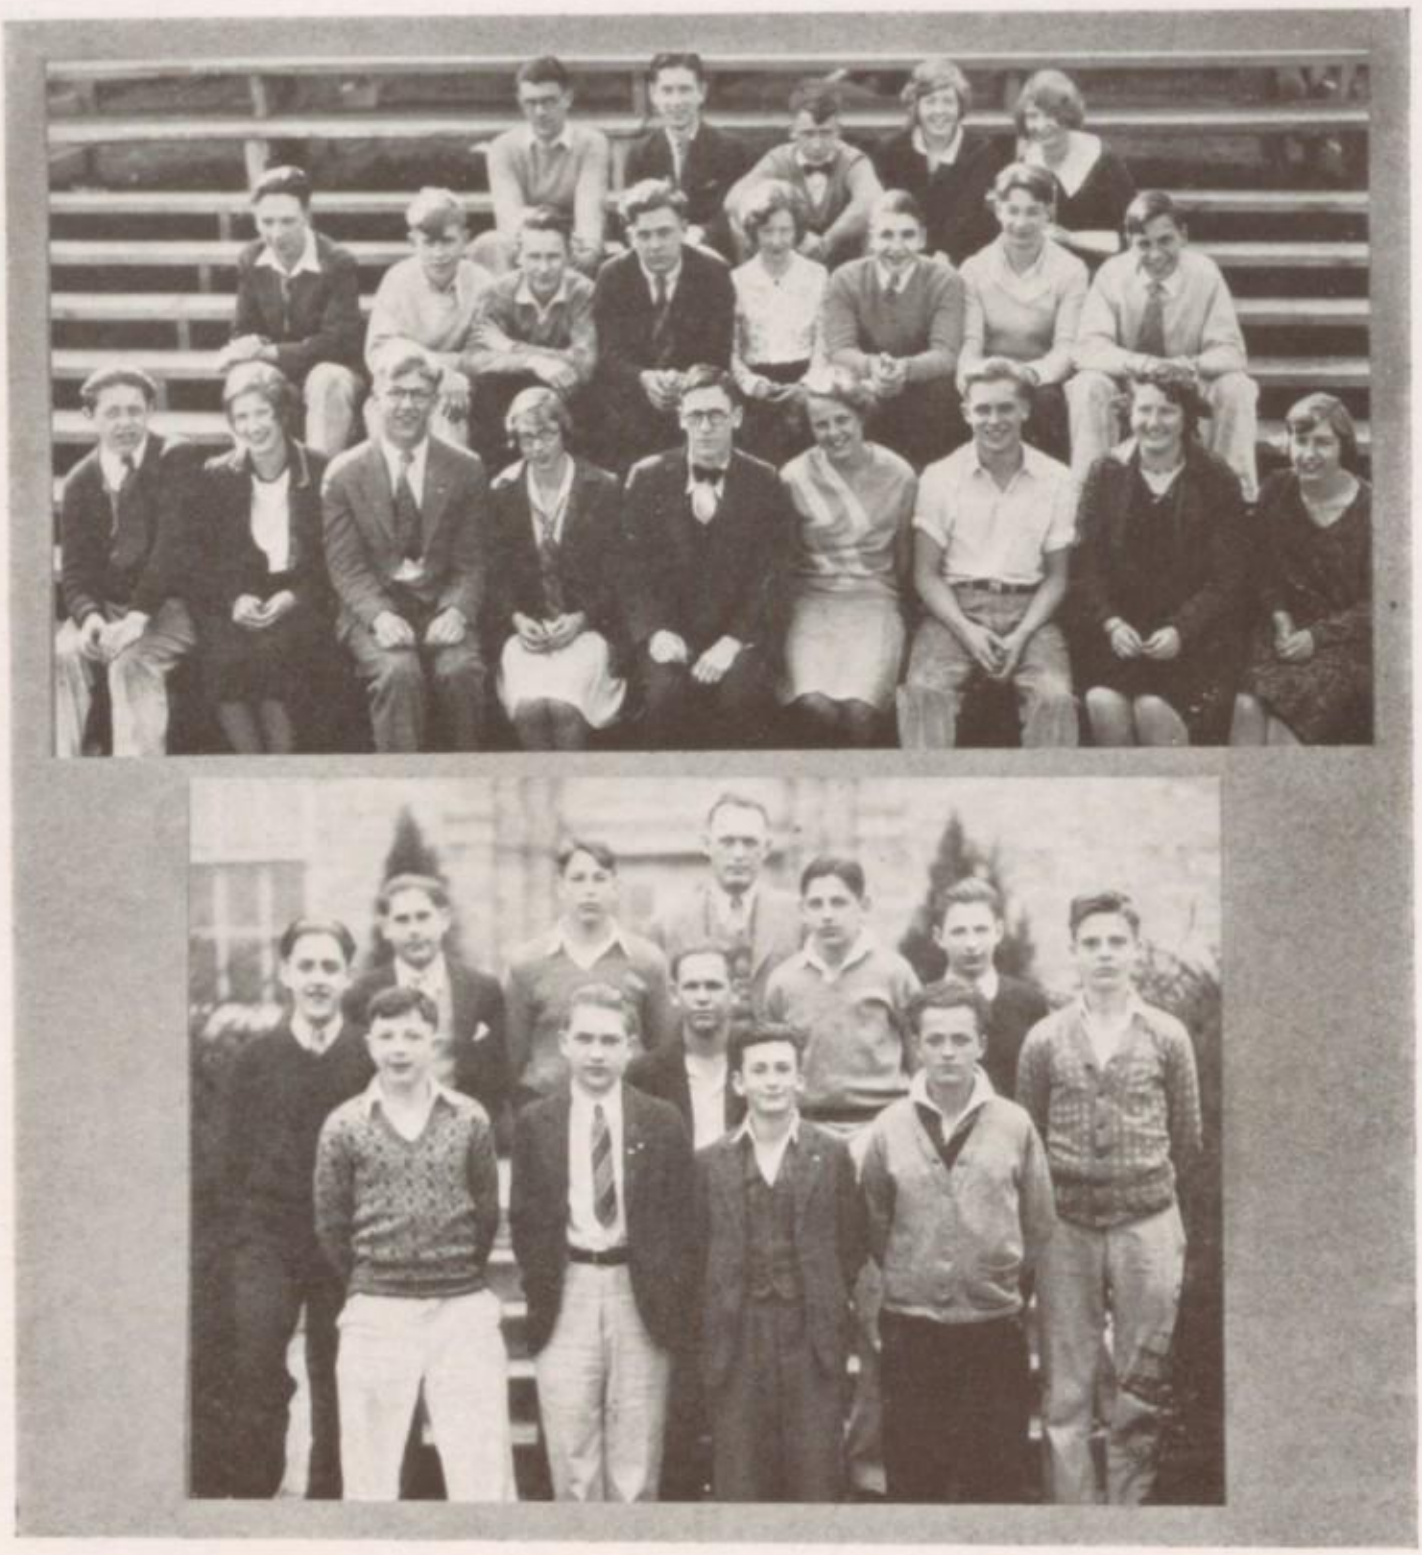
Math Club

Gordon Clothier ..... President
Ed Graudin ..... Vice-President
Roy Maning ..... Secretary-Treasurer
Miss Dunn ..... Faculty Sponsor

History Club

The History Club's first year was a complete success. The outstanding achievement of this organization was the presentation of the play, "Black Congo," on the Lincoln day program.

Mr. Thorsett was sponsor, and the officers were Theda Blake, president; DeKalb Key, vice-president; Joy Wells, secretary; and Jacqueline James, treasurer.



Stage Crew

Our stage crew is responsible for the preparation of all stage work for every school production. To obtain new ideas for this they visited entertainments given by different high schools. They also gave skits of their own creation for performances at home. Those on the crew were Gordon Clothier, Homer Wolf, Rupert Hawley, Don Duncan, Ed Graudin, Ed Chandler, Bert Gustavson, Donald Neal, Newby Bell, Roger Samples, John Wallingford, Bill Smith, Conrad Mannes, Charlotte Leivers, Hazel Mahl, Beth Blaine, Dorothy Butler, Jane Embury, Martha Hutchison, Virginia Ashford, Barbara Storey and Patricia Fiset.

Ticket Squad

The ticket squad was sponsored by Mr. Larson. It was managed the first semester by Conwell Ehret, and the second semester by Conrad Knutson. This group's duty is to attend to all ticket sales for school activities.

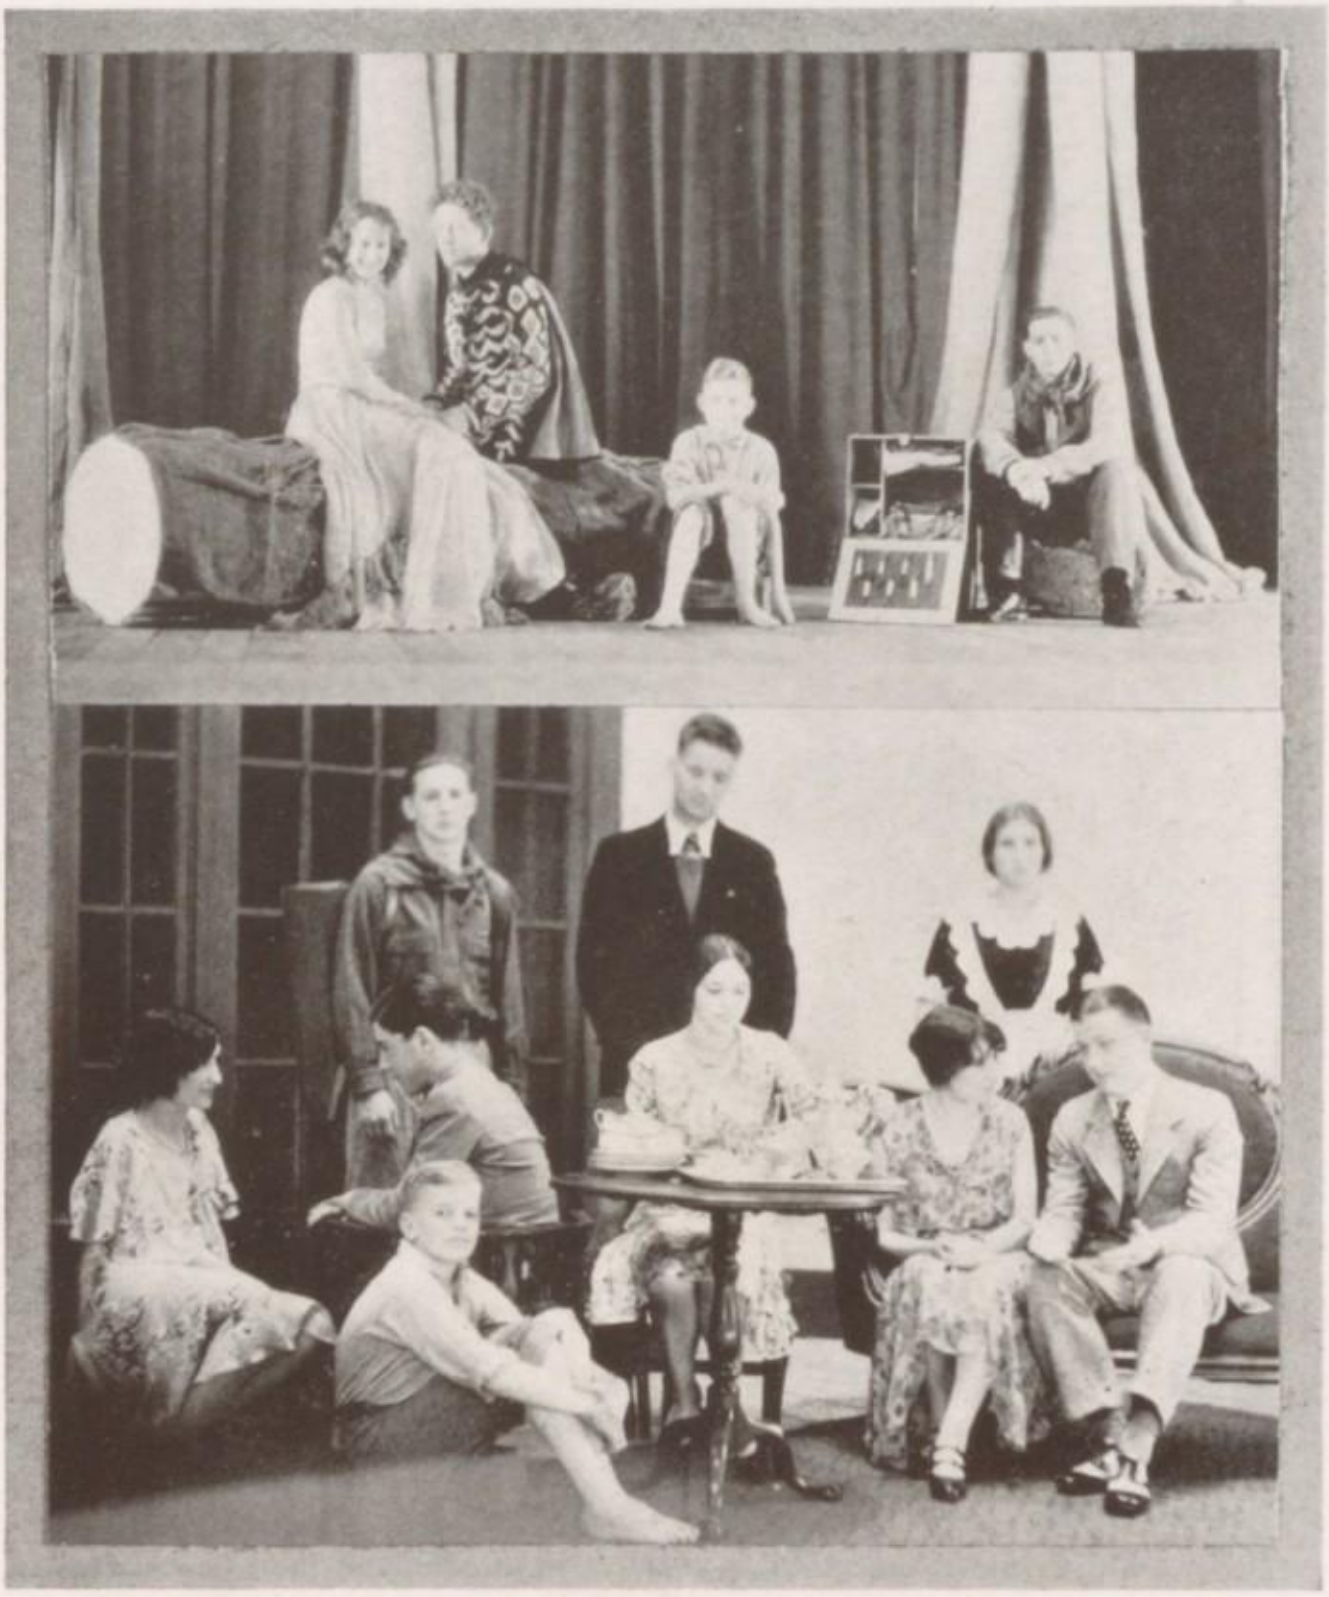
FINE ARTS

If I could find and capture
All the beauty and the grace
Of artful color and lovely lines
In life, this would, indeed, be happiness.
And if, besides this, I could know
All the throbbing melodies that ever
Thrilled the heart of man,
The greatest joys of life would thus be mine.

Schmitz Park

Pow-Wow

Music, dancing, short skits, and acrobatic numbers were features of the Pow-Wow, a new and novel idea in West Seattle's history. All previous attendance records were surpassed both nights.

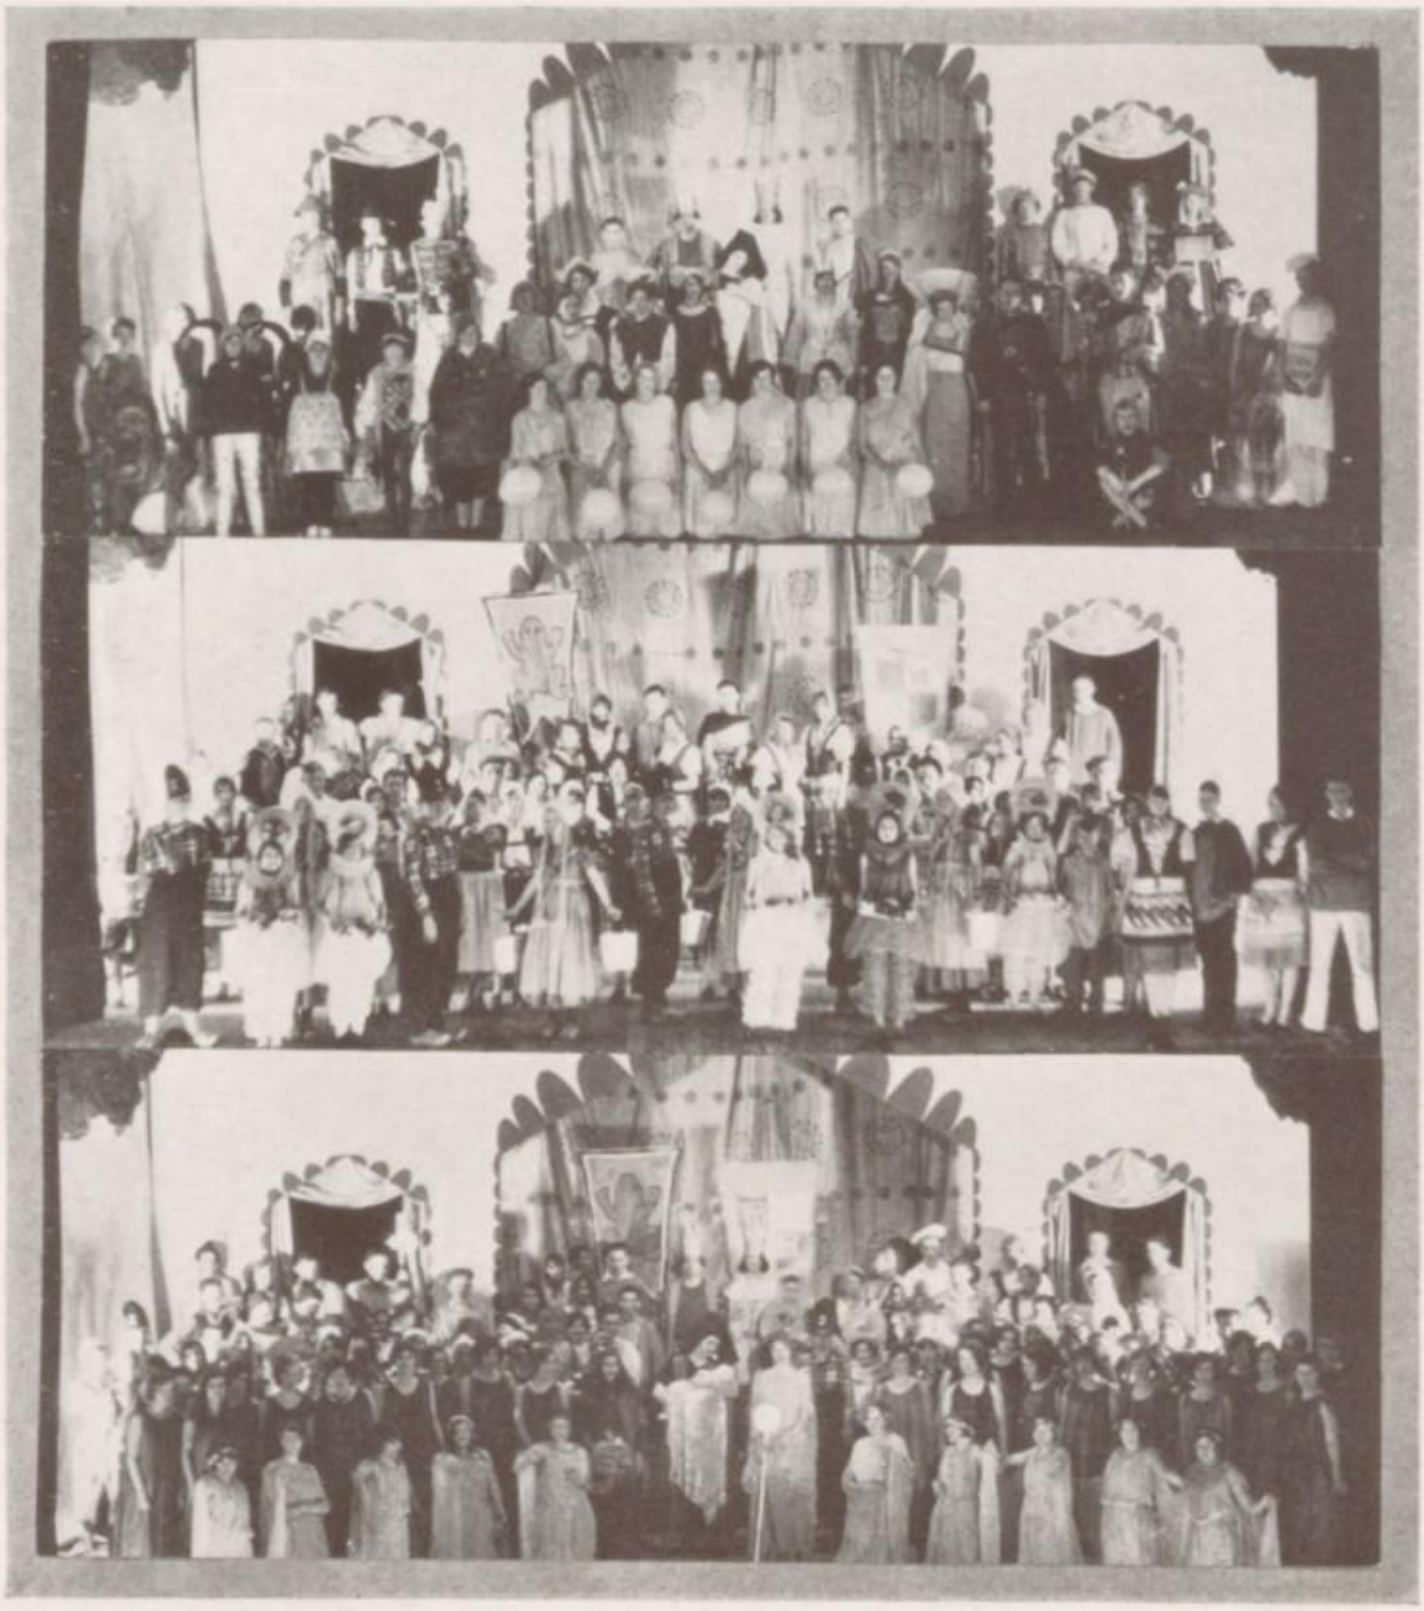


Senior Dramatics

Romance was the theme of "The Romantic Age," by A. A. Milne, which was presented by the Seniors as the class play, April 25 and 26. The parts were effectively taken by the following casts: Mrs. Knowle, Jean Shaver and Ruth Darby; Mr. Knowle, Gordon Young and Jim Wilson; Beth Watson and Helen Beneker; Gervase Mallory, Dick MacMorran and John Storey; Jane, Marion Bauer and Mildred Martin; Bobby, DeKalb Key and Bark Boyd; Gentleman Susan, Delwyn Muller and Val Miller; Ern, Wayne Cooper and Bill Milne; Alice, Mary Dean and Virginia Johnson.

The faculty advisers were as follows: Miss Phillips, dramatic coach; Miss Clark, class adviser; Mrs. Baeder, business; Mr. Hannaford, stage work; Miss Donaldson, posters, costumes, stage design; Miss Allen, costumes; Mr. Behymer, music; Mr. Larson, tickets; Miss Finke, make-up; Miss Pierce, ushers.

A well-organized production staff handled the business end of the affair. It was headed by Park Westover as business manager, who was assisted by Harold Replogle, publicity head; Dorothy Sherman, news, programs; Duane Robinson, district committee; Joy Wells, speakers; Charlotte Hansen, stunts; Hugh Davey, posters; Edna Kramer, specialty advertising; Tom Page, motor squad; George Sheridan, tickets; Louise Ballentine, letters; Gertrude Welch, bookkeeping; Dorothy McDowell, prompter.



Opera

Briar Rose, Mary Hibbs and Dixie Graham; Queen, Charlotte Hansen and Lorna Fox; Lucette, Anna May Stoller and Dorothy McDowell; Mignon, Melba Muir and Florence Weir; Fairy Queen, Ruth Gjesdahl; Renaulda, Elnora Halvorsen and Eunice Doughty; Mytyl, Helen Sexton; Katinka, Nell Wilcox; Marie, Beryl Davies; Anna, Beth Morrish; Spinning woman, Jean Shaver. Florizel, Sid Woody and Andrew Vitalich; Clovis, Gene Wilson; Drago, Bill Ferron; Jacobus, Jack Porter; Jorian, Duane Robinson; Martin, Jim Vance; Tallywick, Lloyd Sandvik; Balareon, Bob Eikenberry; Gorgonzola, Al Tennant; Franz, Bob Howell; Peterkin, Ed Mutter; Dirk, Jim Wilson; Johann, Ernie Anderson; Dietrich, Bill Morse; Cornelis, Lawrence Robinson; Ambrose, Ralph Killeen.

Opera

Dramatic Club

A bigger and better Dramatic Club has been formed this year under the excellent guidance of Mrs. Chamberlen with the following officers: president, Josephine Harvey; vice-president, Dick MacMorran; secretary, Jack Porter; treasurer, Melvin Harper.

The club has been active in school entertainments. "Not Quite Such a Goose" and "Station YYYY" were presented in the Christmas assembly. "Maid of France" was a feature of the Pow Wow, and "The Silent Drama" was given at the Parent-Teacher Jamboree. Three one-act plays were put on at an after-school entertainment this spring.

Art Club

Molly Hart, president, and Mary Dean, secretary-treasurer, assisted by a board of directors made up of representatives from the art classes, determined and carried out the business of the club.

The speakers who addressed club meetings during the year were Miss Strause from Frederick and Nelson's, Miss Stevens from St. Nicholas school, Mr. John Conway from the University, and Mr. J. D. Ross, superintendent of the City Light. Other features of the year's work were an all-day sketching party to Fort Mitchell and the presentation at the May meeting of a two-act melodrama, "The Net," by Mary Dean.

Music Club

This year the Music Department presented the opera, "Briar Rose," which was one of the best ever presented in West Seattle High. The credit for this magnificent production goes to Mr. Behymer and his assistants. The club was reorganized this year with the following officers: Duane Robinson, president; Nell Frances Wilcox, vice-president; Clarice Weidert, secretary-treasurer. It sponsored the music festival, music assemblies, its own semi-monthly programs, and "Miss Carruthers Returns," a two-act operetta by the Junior girls' glee club.

ATHLETICS

Grace to extend a humble hand when victors,
Courage to fight
Laughing and unafraid,
Strength to accept defeat
Without a groan,
Manly men engaged in manly sports.

City Power Plant

Coaches

Indian lads from youths upwards are trained to be strong and swift. They excel in all manly sports, in running, leaping, wrestling, and swimming. Their muscles are firm and supple and coördinate perfectly with their brains. The older men of the tribe take them in hand at an early age and teach them their athletic feats. West Seattle boys also are carefully trained physically by capable men who have proven themselves excellent coaches.

To the coaches is due much of the credit for the fine showing the Indian teams have made in athletics. Four championship teams in five years have been developed by these efficient and painstaking men.

Coach Brinck, football, basketball, and track mentor, has coached at West Seattle for seven years. In 1925 he developed a championship basketball team, the best that has ever represented West Seattle. Harold (Storck) McClary, now star center of the University of Washington five, was a member of this team.

Coach Anderson coaches freshman football, freshman and sophomore basketball, and first team baseball. In the few years he has coached games at West Seattle he has always developed a baseball team of championship caliber.

Coach Atwood, tennis pilot, because of lack of material and interest in the sport, has been unable to produce a very strong team.

Mr. Thorsett coaches golf. Having the same difficulties as Coach Atwood, he has been unable to set forth a championship team.

Managers

An athletic team necessitates the services of certain persons in checking all equipment used and in seeing that the proper things are available at the right time. Also, someone must care for injured players. Such are the duties of the first team managers and their assistants.

Bob Grant and his helpers, Hugh McAdams and Nelson Durham, managed football this year.

Leo Rousseau efficiently managed basketball. Leo's assistant managers were Steve Thurlow, Dick Whiting, and Merle Bemis, a speedy member of the track team.

Showing fine school spirit by helping his team, Bob Grant did a fine job at managing baseball. He was helped by Brick Cameron, Clark Hichcock, and Conrad Mannes.

Jack Cavan, West Seattle's track manager, worked hard to help Coach Brinck in his many duties. His assistants were Alex Howat and Ole Rogland.

These fellows demonstrated a fine spirit and were a real help to the coaches and the teams. Few students realize the hard work and the time these boys contributed.

Due credit must be given Del Muller who so efficiently managed winter track for Coach Brinck, busy coaching basketball at the time. We wish everyone had school spirit such as Del's.

Football

FRED COLLINS, Center—Fred placed on the All-City team. He was a mainstay of the center line and could be depended upon to make accurate passes and to open up holes for the backs.

VIRGIL BROUGHTON, Right End—Verg proved to be a stone wall on the right side of the line.

DEL MULLER, Left End—Like Broughton, Del was a demon on defense and checked every attempt of the opponents to circle his end.

DON McCLARY (Captain), Right Tackle—His experience and fighting spirit made him an inspiration to his team.

BILL STONE, Left Tackle—This was Bill's first year; but considering his inexperience, he did very well. When he hit the line, someone knew it.

TOM GILBERT, Right Half—Though very light, he carried the ball well, was fast, and developed a deceptive dodge.

GIFFORD CLEMENS, Quarterback—Bud was not the largest player on the squad, but what he lacked in size he made up in his playing.

HAROLD CARLSEN, Fullback—His punting and passing were outstanding features of his work.

HAROLD ECKART, Left Tackle—Harold played a consistent game at tackle. At this position he seemed to be impregnable.

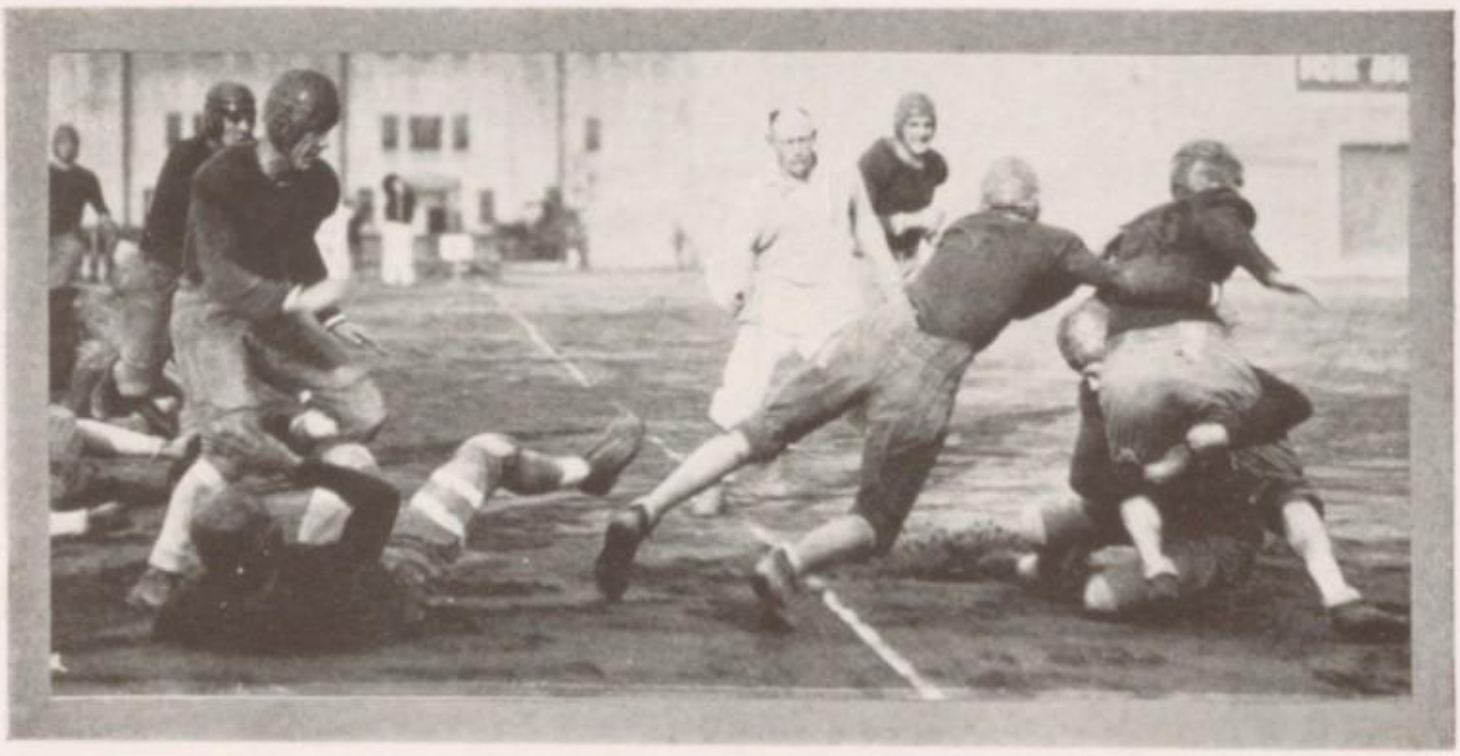
AMOS HERR, Right End—Amos served as a utility. His aggressive playing and example helped in encouraging the others.

ALLEN WEBSTER, Right Guard—On defense he was a tower of strength; with more experience he should develop into a strong lineman.

TINKER JOHNSON, Quarterback—"Tink" served as a utility man. Nevertheless, in the games he played he made a fine showing.

FRANZ JOHNSON, Left Half—Although small in stature, he was fast and carried the ball well.

JIM WHITING, Left Guard—Jim's experience enabled him to hold up his part of the line against his much heavier opponents.



West Seattle 7 Queen Anne 12

Probably the best game of the 1929-30 football season, from the standpoint of thrills and good playing, was the West Seattle-Queen Anne game, the last of the season.

At the start of the contest the Hilltoppers began to boom away at the West Siders when they recovered the fumbled kickoff. Successive smashes by Curtis and Hossman, Kuay backfield stars, put the ball on West Seattle's 20-yard line. The Indians held, but it seemed that the breaks were against them. Carlson attempted a punt, which was blocked and recovered by Queen Anne on the 1-yard marker. Hossman punched the Indian line for a touchdown. Queen Anne again scored in the middle of the second quarter.

However, the Indians came back in the last quarter to score a touchdown. It was Tommy Gilbert who started the fireworks by romping 25 yards around left end. A few minutes later West Seattle received a Kuay punt on the 50-yard line and started on a touchdown march. It was aided materially by a beautiful pass from Carlson to the outstretched arms of Del Muller, whose run was good for 32 yards, putting the ball on the Q. A. 10-yard stripe. Again the Carlson-Muller play worked, this time for six points. Exactly the same play was responsible for the extra point.

The feature of the game came in the third quarter. One of Hossman's passes found its way into Virge Broughton's arms. He ran 60 yards before Hossman finally brought him down.

Collins, Broughton, Muller, McClary, and Webster played stellar ball. In fact every man played a good game.

The Football Games

Starting with five veterans on the team, the West Seattle Indians finished in a tie for seventh place, the most disastrous season in recent years. Mr. S. M. Brinck, coach, had very little material to work with but developed one of the best defensive teams in the city. A championship team is expected next year.

The first game of the season was played with the Ballard Beavers. The Indians emerged on the short end of a 6-0 score.

The following week they met Franklin. They held the mighty Green Wave to a score of 6-0.

Next they played the powerful Garfield eleven. Inasmuch as they were considerably out-weighted, the Redskins bit the dust, and the Bulldogs emerged victorious with the score 12-0.

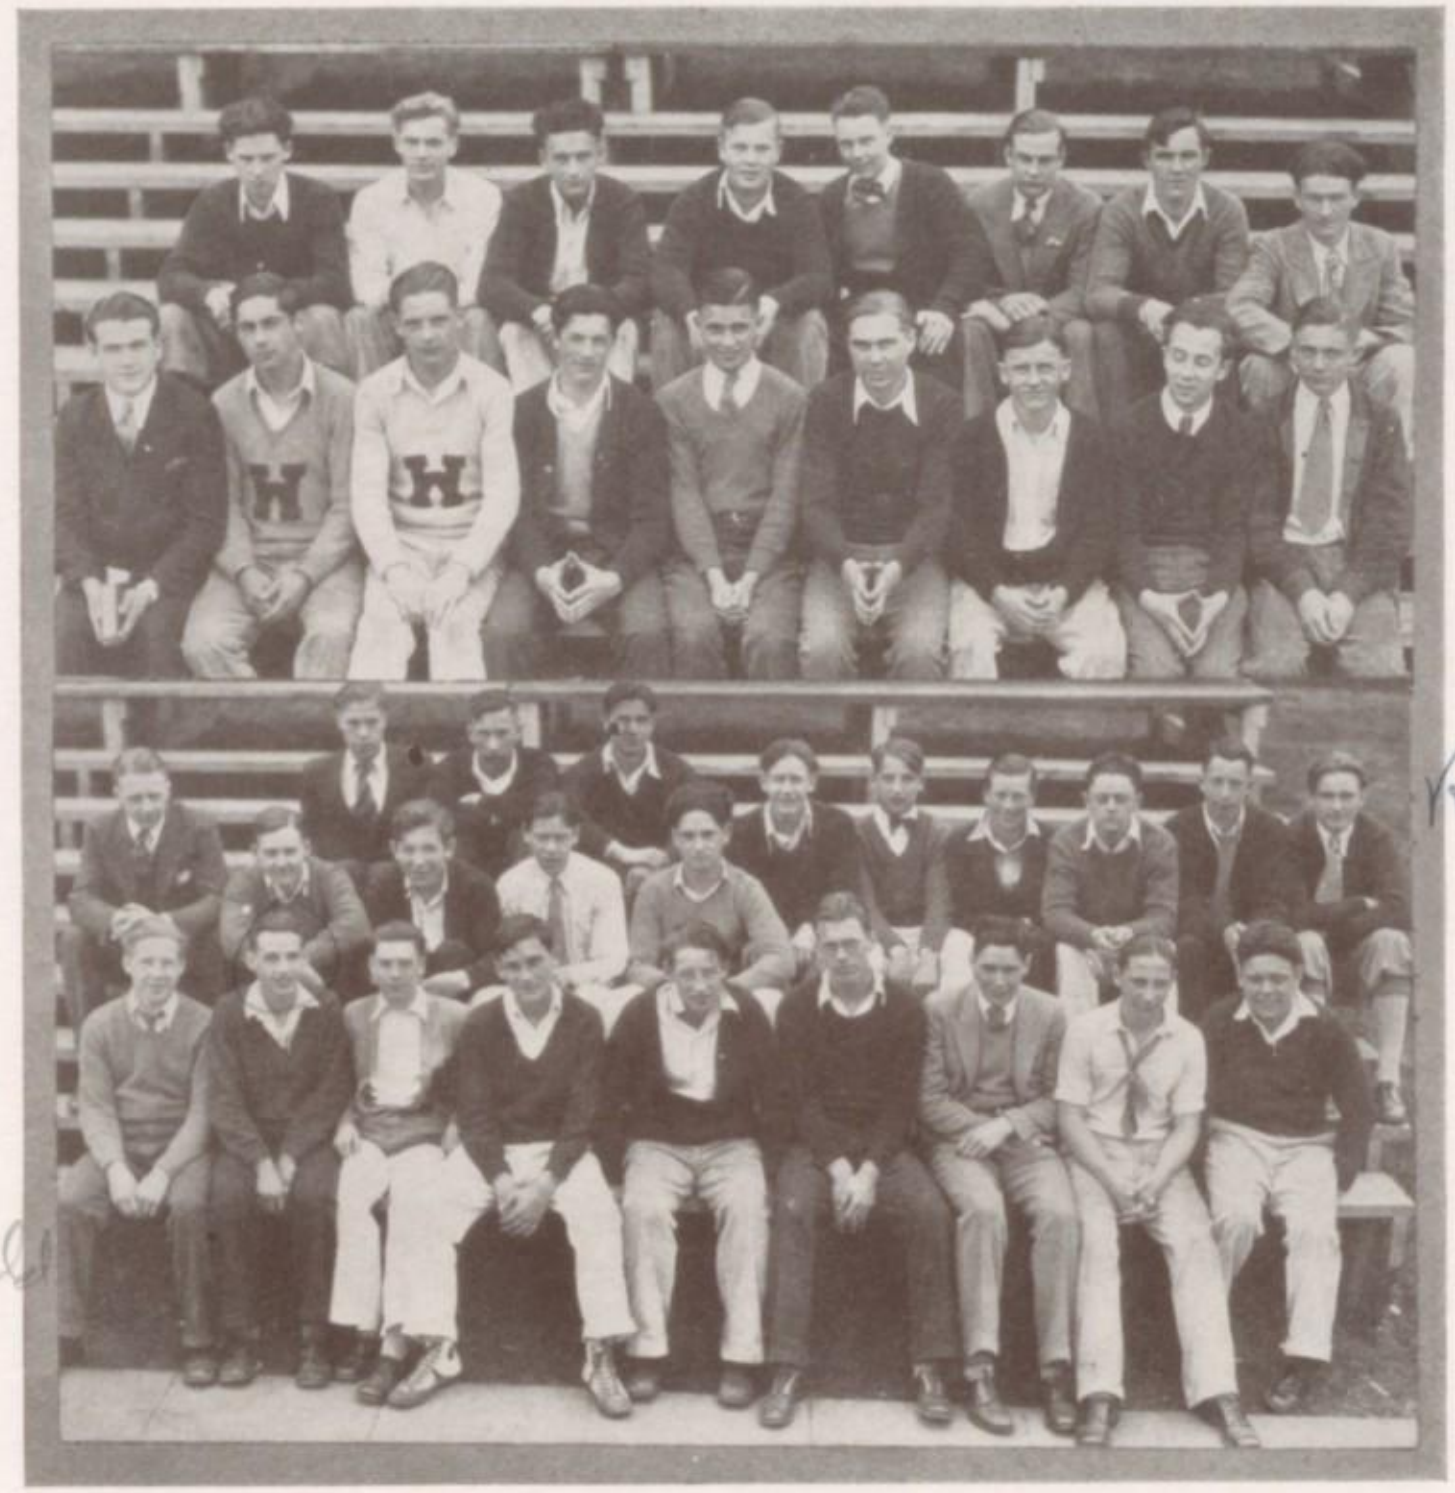
The Roosevelt Roughriders were next. The Indians fought their hearts out to 0-0 tie.

Not content with this, the Redskins walloped Broadway, 18-0, scoring their first touchdowns of the season. Gilbert, Carlsen, and Broughton played stellar ball for the locals.

In the last game of the season the Indians came out of the fray with the score against them, but the Quays won only after a hard fought battle, 12-7.

West Seattle placed one man on the official all-city team, namely, Sonny Collins.

The lettermen returning next fall are Sonny Collins, Tommy Gilbert, and Mutt Webster.

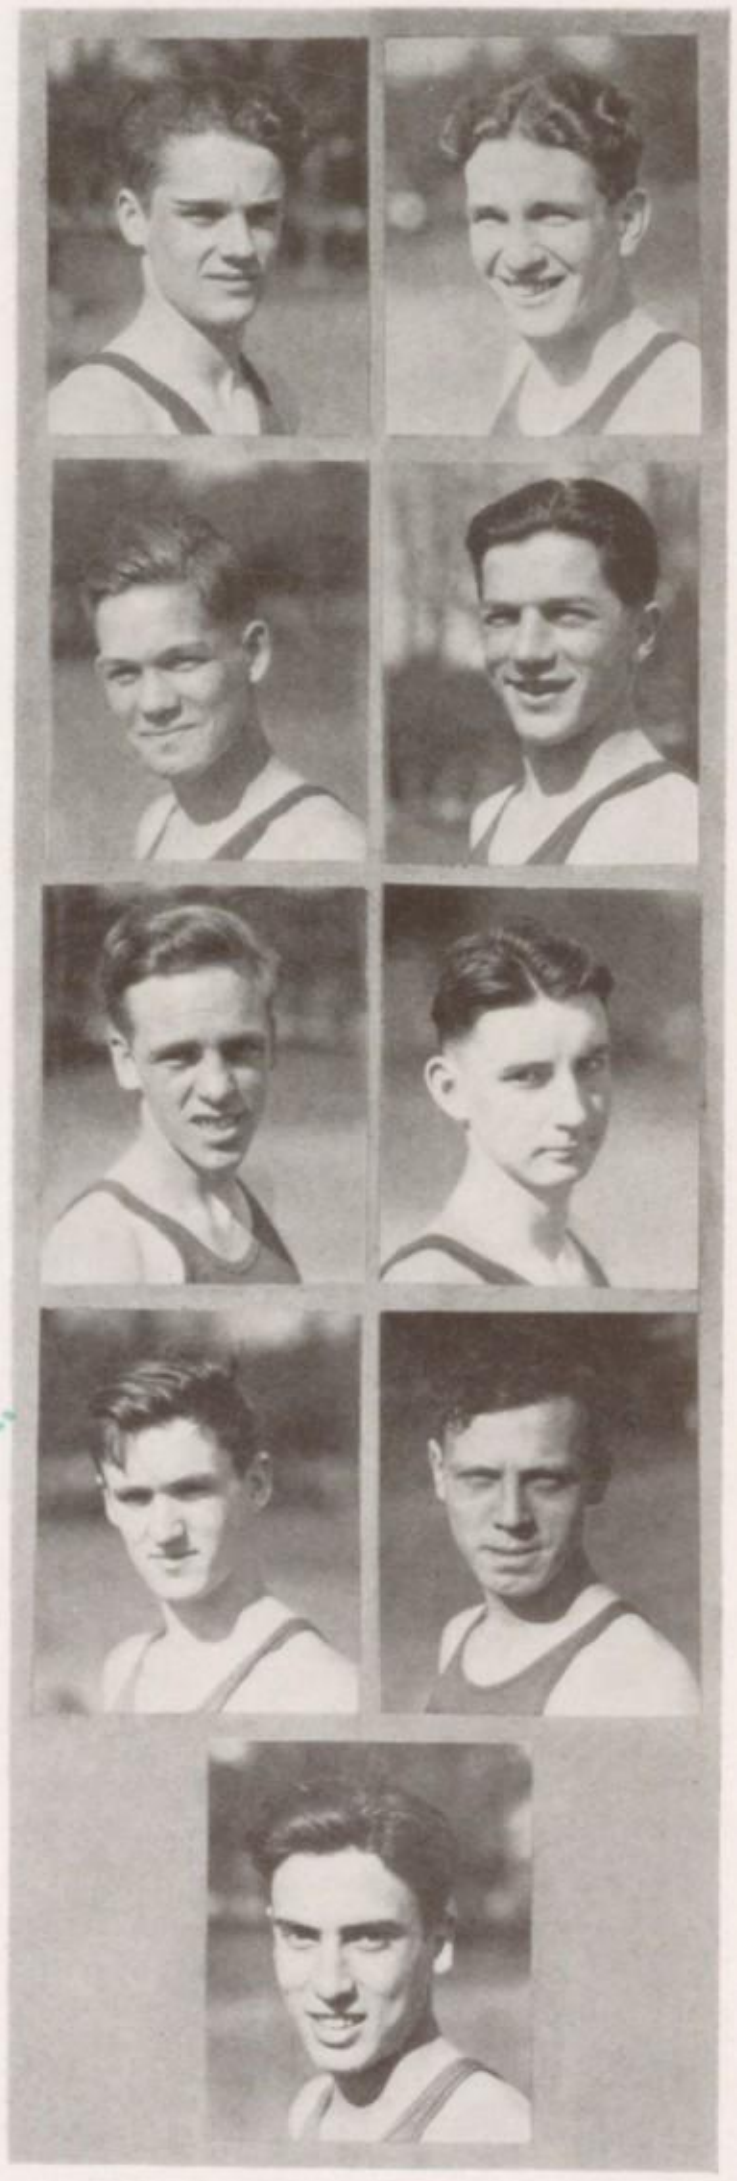


Second Team Football

The second team won two games and lost four, ending a poor season. Those winning second team letters were Hubert Jensen, Loring McManus, Hugh Davey, Neil Chase, Carl Winquist, Jack Skewes, Jack Bennett, Sam Wylde, Gail Doolittle, Benton Kirby, George Murdock, Bill Morse, and Lawrence Lemmel.

Frosh Football

The first year men finished a very successful season, winning three games and tying one. Those playing stellar ball were Mike Mitchell, Dick Rice, and Jack Rich.



Basketball

LORING McMANUS (Captain), Guard—He was the only returning veteran and was the most formidable player on the squad. He often held his opponents to no baskets, and some of his opponents were the best in the city.

GORDON GRAY, Guard—As a dead-eye on both field goals and fouls, Gordie was a valuable man on the squad.

TINKER JOHNSON, Forward—Tink, too, was a dead-eye on field goals. He possessed real ability and played a hard-fought game.

GAIL DOOLITTLE, Forward—Although lacking a little experience, Gail fought hard and displayed a true sportsman's spirit.

VIRGIL BROUGHTON, Center-Forward—He played an excellent game at both positions, exhibiting a steady and accurate game.

GORDON McRAE, Forward—Gordie could always be seen in the thick of the battle. He returns next year.

FORREST RIEKE, Center—Stork's height and ranginess always gave West Seattle the tip-off at center. He was a valuable asset to the team.

DON McCLARY, Guard—Don was held in reserve, but when in the game he played a good defensive game.

GLEN ST. CHARLES, Forward—Although he was the smallest player on the team, Glen was by no means the least able. A speedy player—his passing, dribbling, and shooting were greased with lighting itself.

The Basketball Games

West Seattle's basketball team of last year left little material behind it from which this year's team could be built. One difficulty loomed up which made Coach Brinck's task exceedingly difficult: nearly all the candidates lacked experience. Despite this, they were able to finish on top of the second division.

Starting off with a bang, the Indians defeated Ballard on our maple court, 15-11.

Queen Anne gave the Redskins their first sip of defeat by chalking up a 26-16 victory on the Quay floor.

After a week's rest the Indians invaded the Lincoln gym, losing the fray by a 31-18 score.

Penetrating Roosevelt's five-man defense, the West Seattle hoopsters defeated the Roughriders, 35-20.

Next, the Cleveland Eagles surprised the prep fans by nosing out the Indians, 20-19.

Again the Redskins lost a heartbreaker, this time to Broadway, 19-18.

They finally got out of the slump and trounced Garfield, 29-14.

Fighting desperately for a chance in the upper-division playoff, the Indians were defeated by Franklin to the tune of 32-15.

In the playoff, West Seattle wiped out a previous defeat and won from Broadway, 30-15.

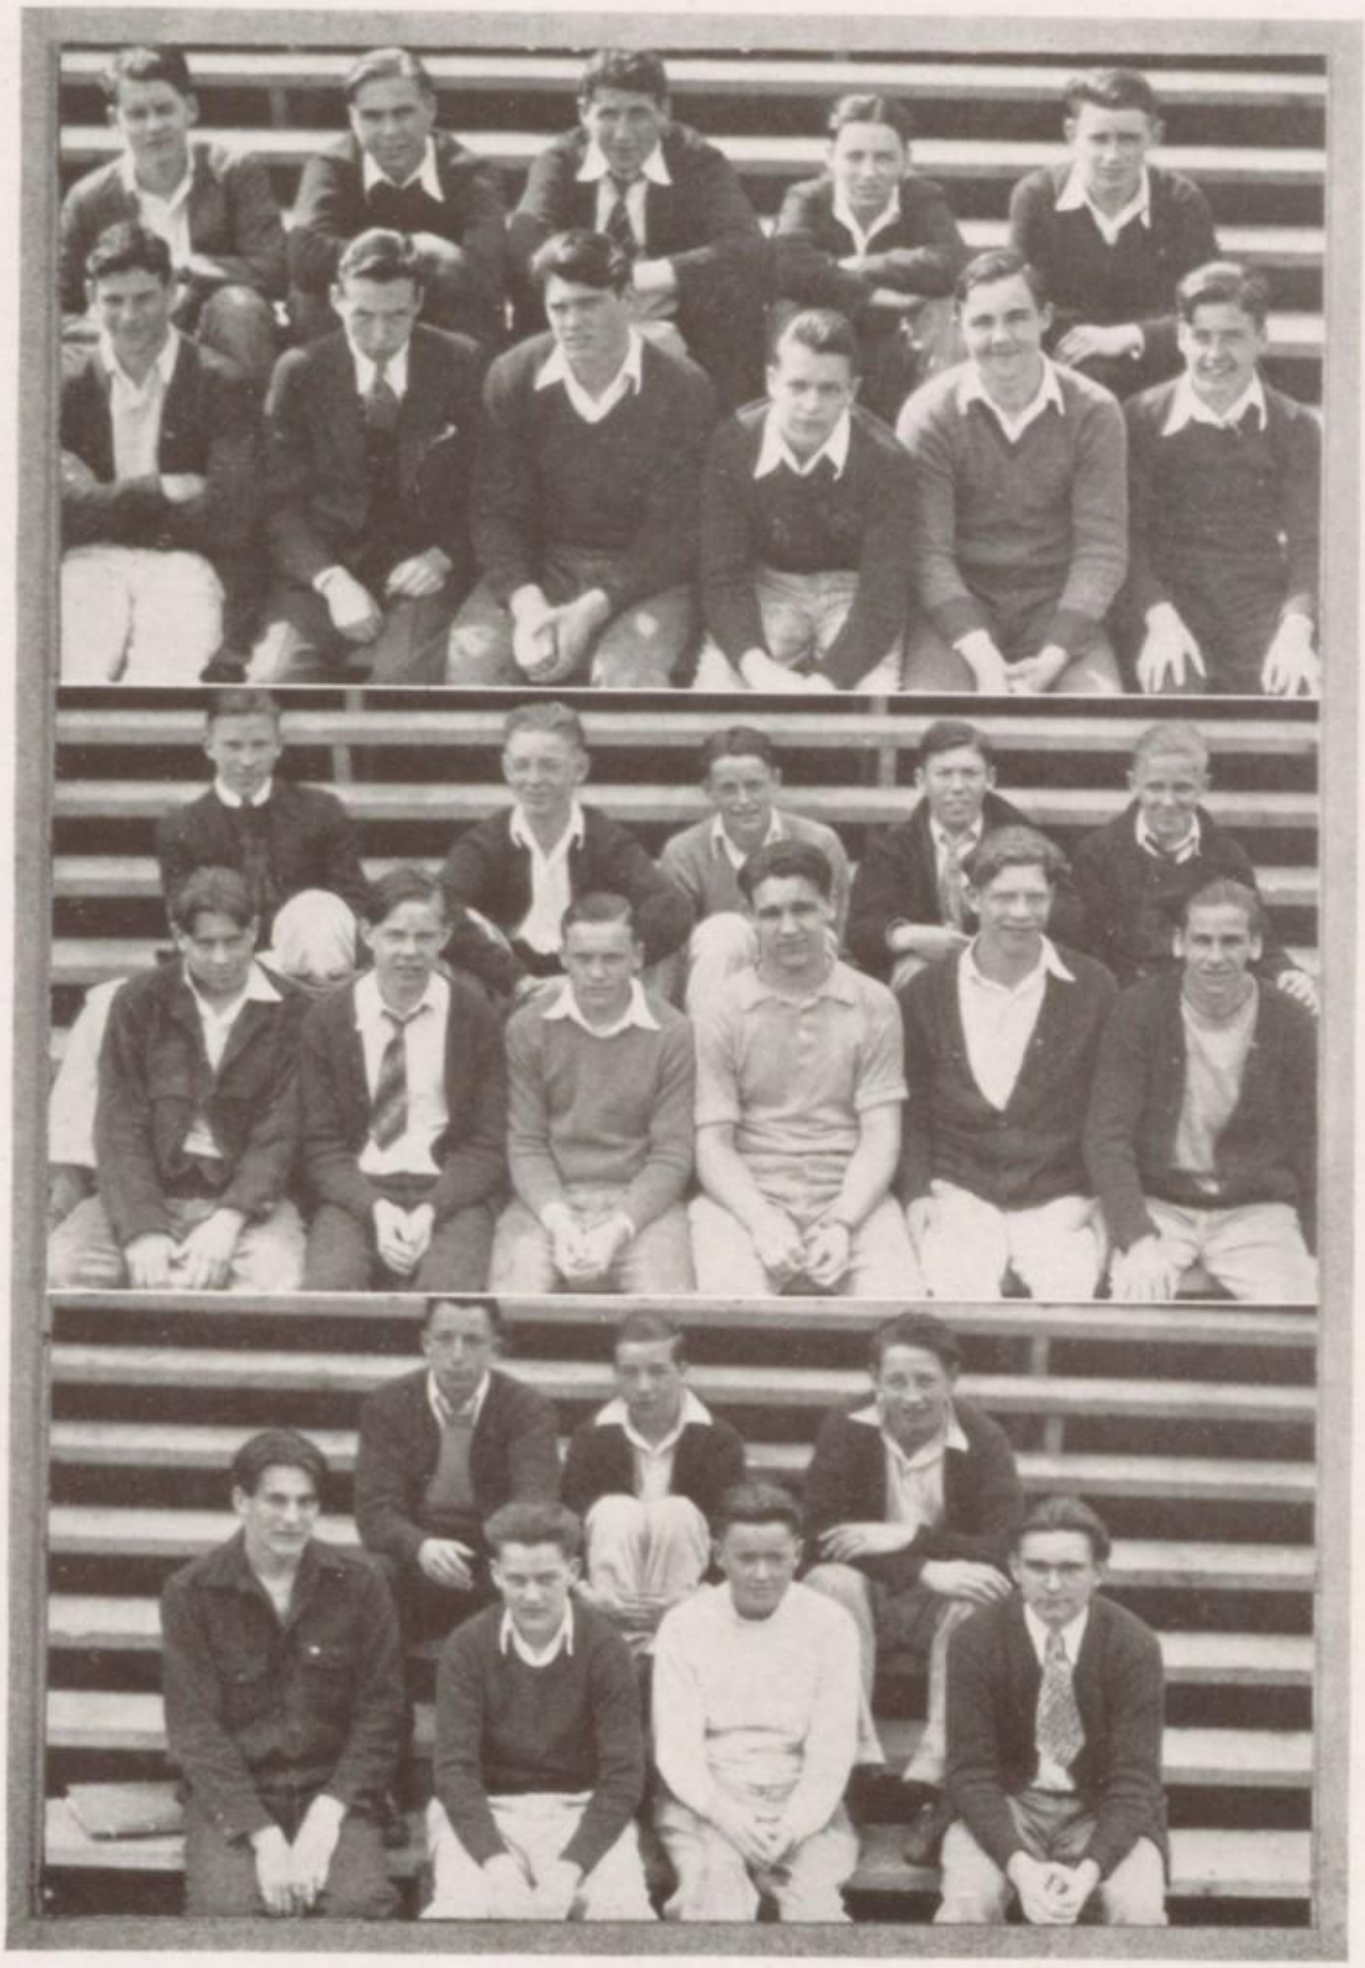
Next, the Indians defeated Roosevelt, 25-19.

Defeating "old man jinx," who had prevailed on the Ballard floor since 1924, the Redskins upset the dope by downing the Beavers, 20-13.

In the final game the Indians lost to Garfield, 26-20.

Those earning the coveted first team letters were Broughton, Rieke, and McClary, centers; Johnson, Doolittle, St. Charles, and Stewart, forwards; McManus (captain), Gray, and McRae, guards.

The material for next year promises to be good, Rieke, Doolittle, Grey, and McRae returning.



SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL—Sam Patterson, Einar Nelson, Norman Tuohy, Sonny Collins, Harvey Lawrence, George Murdock, Fred Schwier, Allen Webster, Glen McDermid, Sandy Stewart.

SOPH BASKETBALL—Tom Gilbert, Wilson Foster, Clark Quimby, Al Tennant, Kenneth Newman, Larry Olmstead, Joe Jefferson, Ralph Johansen, Vernon Clark, Don Fife, Bill Smith.

FROSH BASKETBALL—Mike Mitchell, Dick Rice, Bob Seldon, Bud Ransdell, Joe Davis, Louis Gilbert, Harold Supplee, Roy Hanson.

Tennis

Tennis at West Seattle has always been handicapped by lack of material. Despite this, the Indians have always had a fighting team. Under the direction of Coach Atwood the following represented West Seattle this year: Avann, Manning, St. Charles, Stewart, and Miller.

Golf

Directed by Coach Thorsett, golf had a fair season at West Seattle. Those who took part in meets were G. McRae, S. Ranta, J. Dail, W. Rich, G. Anderson, B. Eikenberry, B. Dail, Carl Winquist, and Roy Swensen.

Track

BOB KELLER, High Jump, Broad Jump—Legs of spring steel describe this fellow best. He takes a few steps and hurls himself over the bar regularly to win the high jump.

FORREST REIKE, High Jump—Like Keller, Forrest excels in the high jump. His average is better than five feet two inches.

SAM PATTERSON, Pole Vault—Sam clears the bar nicely in the pole vault and is showing steady improvement in every meet.

DON BROWN, Pole Vault—Don also pole vaults and with Patterson has been representing West Seattle in this event.

DON McCLARY, Shot and Discus—Don takes points regularly in both shot and discus.

ALLEN WEBSTER, Shot and Discus—Allen, like McClary, specializes in the weights.

DEL MULLER, Sprints—The 100-220, and relay are Del's favorites.

CHESTER DUCKWITZ, Distance—Chet can always be relied upon to take a place in his events. He stars in the mile.

MERLE BEMIS, Distance—Bemis is West Seattle's star half-miler, beating his opponents consistently.

LLOYD RICHARDSON, Hurdles—Lloyd was West Seattle's star hurdler this year and could be counted upon to win his events.

BILL STONE, Discus—Bill, our "physic boy," excelled in the discus and shot.

VERNON CLARK, Distance—Though not a consistent point getter as other members of the team, Vernon was always out there doing his best.

TOM GILBERT, Hurdles—Though he did not garner as many points as his brother John, Tom was a valuable man to the squad.

The Track Meets

Track is an up and coming sport at West Seattle High; yet it is one that does not receive the attention it deserves. We have not, as yet, had a championship team. However, this is explained by the lack of material.

This year's frosh turn-out is thought to be the largest in years. The Freshmen are expected to stand among the best in the city, while the Sophomore team, so far this year, has appeared to be average.

The Red Skins first tangled with Cleveland in a practice meet, which was easily won by the Indians.

The Indians took the high points in all events except the jumps. Chet Duckwitz won the mile and four-forty in good time, with Bemis pushing him all the way. Muller copped the sprints with Patterson second. Webster carried the shot put honors with a heave of forty-one feet; with Bill Stone, second; and McClary, third. Bill Stone showed his ability in the discus when he chucked it one hundred and four feet. McClary took third. Don Brown, Sam Patterson, and Bob Keller took care of the pole-vaulting. Keller also high-jumped and broad-jumped with Jensen.

The relay team picked to represent West Seattle was Del Muller, Hubert Jensen, Sam Patterson, and Chet Duckwitz. However, Cleveland failed to place a team against them.

The Franklin meet, on April 26, ended with another victory for West Seattle, the second this season. The final score found the Indians with 73 points to Franklin's 40.

Chet Duckwitz, the high-point man, came through with eleven and one-quarter points. Chet, in his first event, won the mile and set a new record of four minutes and fifty-two seconds. Chet repeated his victory in the quarter-mile.

Lloyd (Leg) Richardson, and Bill Stone tied for second honors with a score of ten points each, Leg earning his by winning the two hurdle events, the 110-yard and the 220-yard. Bill took the two weight events: the shot, with a put of 43 feet 3 inches, and a heave of 108 feet in the discus. Don McClary placed second in this last event with Webster second in the shot.

Merle Bemis won the half-mile event, while Vern Clark took third place. Del Muller took two seconds in the 100-yard and 220-yard events, with Sam Patterson, third, in the latter. Bob Keller won the high jump with a jump of 5 feet 6 inches. The Indians likewise copped the half-mile relay. The team was composed of Duckwitz, Jensen, Patterson, and Muller.

First Team Baseball

GORDON GRAY (Captain), Second Base—Because of his experience, Gordie was the best ground ball catcher on the squad—a real hitter.

IRA SCRIBNER, Pitcher—The bulk of the mound fell to Ira, who handled the job well. He may land on the All-City Team.

TOM O'NEILL, Outfield—Tom picks the flies with accuracy and has a long throw to home. He is one of the best hitters on the squad.

BOB MORSE, Outfield—Bob is playing his third year. All the long, high ones which come out to left field are the prey of Bob's eagle eye and trusty mitt.

BUD RANSDELL, First Base—It is a thrilling sight to see him snap the leather-covered sphere from all angles. Bud is but a frosh and much is expected of him in the next three years.

VIRGIL BROUGHTON, Outfield—He hits consistently, and also plays fine ball in the outfield.

LORING McMANUS, Short Stop—He is able to place nice bunts and also run the bases cleverly.

GAIL DOOLITTLE, First Base—Gail hits consistently and has a high average. In the field he takes anything and everything, fast or slow.

MELVIN HARPER, Outfield—This is his first year on the team. His hitting is spectacular and he plays well in the outfield.

BILL SMITH, Catcher—The graduation of Glen Gunderson left a big hole in the Indian catching staff, but all concern was removed when Bill took over the backstop berth.

HARVEY LAWRENCE, Third Base—This stocky little fellow hit and fielded well at the "hot box" corner.

EINER NELSON and AMOS HERR, Pitchers—These boys are expected to earn their letters as the season progresses.

The Baseball Games

Three lettermen from last year, together with a number of promising players, reported for practice at the start of the season, and prospects for a strong team were bright.

In the person of Ira Scribner West Seattle possessed one of the best chuckers in the city. This year's squad is composed largely of undergraduates and with this year's experience behind them, next spring should see a strong nine in the field.

The team stacks up with Scribner and Smith, batteries; Doolittle, Gray, McManus, and Lawrence, infielders; while Morse, O'Neill, Harper, and Broughton patrol the gardens. Epler, Nelson, Ransdell, and Herr are also expected to see action before the season ends.

At the time of this writing only three games had been played. The opener was won by Lincoln 8-6. In the second game West Seattle downed Broadway 2-0 in a pitcher's battle. In the next game West Seattle defeated Franklin, 4-0.

West Seattle 6—Lincoln 8

Errors, too numerous, accounted for the stinging defeat given West Seattle by Coach Boselly's squad from Lincoln in the opening game of the season. The smoothness seemed absent from the home team, and not until the final inning did the Indians regain their form. The game was a slugging contest throughout.

West Seattle 2—Broadway 0

Excellent pitching by Scribner, supported by an air-tight infield, resulted in the defeat of Broadway by a 2-0 count. Eighteen strike-outs were registered by Scribner and eight by the Broadway ace, Budnick.

After seven innings of errorless ball the Indians bunched a brace of hits in the eighth for the two winning runs.

West Seattle 4—Franklin 0

Again pitching sensational ball, Ira Scribner, West Seattle ace, baffled fourteen Quakers at the plate, leading West Seattle in a 4-0 shutout over Franklin. Scribner allowed but two scattered hits.

Jones, chucker for Franklin, also pitched good ball but couldn't cope with the stuff Scribner had.

Tumbling Team

Tumbling has been an exceptionally popular activity this year. Under the excellent coaching of Miss Tozier and the management of Esther Haga the team accomplished stunts which they heretofore thought impossible. Besides the regular team work the tumbling team appeared on several Girls' Club programs and in the successful "Flip Flop Flappers" act of the Pow Wow.

Girls' Physical Education

A new system has been inaugurated which gained the interest of many more girls in after school inter-class athletics and thus made larger and more enthusiastic turnouts. This idea of inter-roll teams proved very successful. Mr. W. J. Murphy's roll team won the inter-roll championship in basketball.

Class managers of basketball were Clarice Weidert, Senior; Josephine Harvey, Junior; Maureen O'Neill, Sophomore; Ottilie Lou Kepner, Freshmen.

The following girls were chosen to act as class managers for hockey: Genevieve Watson, Senior; Evelyn Stewart, Junior; Alice Dunson, Sophomore; Edythe Ginger, Freshman. The Juniors won the championship in the inter-class series of hockey and basketball.

Preliminary series in volleyball were played by teams chosen by six picked Seniors. The teams headed by Anita Schank were the winners. Class managers were Grace Kelsey, Senior; Exilda De Jardine, Junior; Kathryn Hightower, Sophomore; Helen Sexton, Freshmen. The inter-class teams were elected by the members of the class turning out. After a long hard battle the Freshmen emerged victorious.

In track the girls were divided into squads and rotated from one event to another in practice. The girls from all classes turned out each night and measurement of their skill was taken by set standards at the end of the track season.

Tennis was run concurrently with baseball and track. Clarice Weidert was the general manager of tennis. Last year's tennis tournament was won by Mary Dixon. Runner up was Nannette Tibbals.

The general manager of hockey was Jean Shaver, Senior; of volleyball, Ruby Osterman, Junior; of basketball, Jane Matter, Senior; of track, Exilda De Jardine, Junior; of baseball, Jane Fuller, Senior. These girls who have served as managers are to be recommended for their good work, both as managers and as members of their respective teams.

Many interesting hikes were taken under the excellent supervision of Miss Tozier and Anita Schank, hiking manager. Some of the most interesting were taken to the beaches, the Seattle Box Factory, and the Boeing airplane plant. Each four-mile hike gives twenty points to the hiker; and as hiking is an easy way of making points for the "W" Club as well as being healthful, girls are urged to follow this activity.

Girls' "W" Club

Due to the increased interest in girls' sports, the Girls' "W" Club has grown in size until now it is one of the largest organizations of its kind in the city. Due to this and the enthusiasm and spirit of its members, the year 1929-30 has proved the most successful in the history of the "W" Club.

During the Girls' Athletic Club Conference held in September, 1929, West Seattle was ably represented by five girls: Genevieve Watson, Nell Ransdell, Clarice Weidert, Charlotte Hanson, and Winnie De Witt. This conference is held every year to promote sportsmanship and to discuss points for turnouts. Miss Hurd and Miss Tozier, as well as supervisors from the other schools, attended.

The activities of the club were successfully guided by its officers: president, Genevieve Watson; vice-president, Nell Ransdell; secretary-treasurer, Clarice Weidert. Other members of the club were the following:

Solveig Christenson

Sophs and Juniors for the small,
But it hasn't been determined yet,
Why Frosh were born at all.

We don't want to crow about it but we do clean clothes right. There are all kinds of cleaning methods. Less progressive races in distant lands still clean their clothes on the river bank. Yes, and even in White Center there are folks who take chances by doing cleaning at home with highly combustible fluids. The odor usually clings to the clothing, too.

Cleaning is our business—we study its every angle, and we are ready to give you the advantage of our experience.

"Deacon White," asked Parson Jackson softly, "will you lead us in prayer?" There was no answer.

"Deacon White," (this time a little louder) "will you lead?" Still no response. Evidently the deacon was slumbering. Parson Jackson made a third appeal and raised his voice to a high pitch that succeeded in arousing the drowsy man. "Deacon White, will you lead?"

The deacon in bewilderment rubbed his heavy eyes and announced, "Lead yourself—I just dealt."
